News

For the community garden, funding is still being figured out. In the meantime, we also need to think about which plants to have and where the food will go.

This past New Members Party was the biggest we've seen yet! This could be due to more people talking about it, a new willingness from new members to unite at one event, or just because Prez Kat is bringin' some luck to the Honors House.

"Honors Program", with no apostrophe.

News to come about the Honors Conferences.

[STUDENT HONORS COUNCIL MEETING NOTES]

We're hoping to put together a discussion panel about what teachers do/don't do that students do/don't like. It'll occur sometime late January, early February. In the meantime, Charlie's going to organize a survey with a few questions that'll be sent out mid-November.

To-Do List

For the GPA to be lowered, more information needs to be brought to the Faculty Honors Council.

For the Honors Program to get more publicity, we need to inform not just students, but faculty. This includes asking advisors to have a stack of pamphlets in their office, or to suggest the Program to those eligible for it.
